JOEL G. MERCER, being duly sworn, deposes and states:

INTRODUCTION

1. I am a Special Agent of the United States Department of Justice, Federal Bureau of Investigation (“FBI”), and I am empowered by law to investigate and make arrests for offenses enumerated in Title 18, United States Code, Section 2516. As such, I am an “investigative or law enforcement officer”, within the meaning of Title 18, United States Code, Section 2510(7).

2. I have been employed as a Special Agent of the FBI since February 1997 and am currently assigned to the Albany Division, Ithaca Resident Agency. While employed by the FBI, I have investigated Federal criminal violations related to cybercrime, child exploitation, child pornography, complex financial crimes, violent crime, and drug offenses. I have gained experience through training by the FBI and everyday work relating to conducting these types of investigations. I have applied for and participated in the execution of several federal search warrants in numerous and varied types of investigations.

3. On Friday March 2, 2018 the Cortland County Sheriff’s Department became involved in an investigation concerning a report that Jensen Schack, age 19, had posted a video and photos on his Snapchat<sup>1</sup> account that included his father shooting a semiautomatic rifle the caption, "Cortland Highschool watch out," and photos with the captions, "Want to come take our guns? You better bring yours" and "that snap was a joke please don't send the cops to my house." These three snap chat photos are exhibit 4. This information and additional information were used to obtain a search warrant from Cortland County Court for the residence of Jensen Schack in Chenango County. Jensen Schack is a 2016 graduate of Cortland High School.

<sup>1</sup> “Snapchat” is an internet application that allows the user of the account to distribute posts, videos and photos through social media. One feature of Snapchat is that items posted via this application self-erase after a relatively short period of time.

4. On Saturday March 3, 2018 members of the Cortland County, Madison County, and Chenango County Sheriff's Departments executed a search warrant issued by Cortland County Court Judge David C. Alexander on March 2, 2018 based upon sworn affidavits. The search warrant, search warrant application, and attached affidavits are attached here as exhibit 1. This Cortland County Court search warrant authorized the search of the residence described therein, which is the same as the location described herein in this search warrant application in attachment A. The Cortland County Court search warrant authorized a search for firearms and related items set forth therein related to alleged terroristic threats in violation of New York State Law and the illegal possession of a firearm under New York State law. In the course of executing the NYS search warrant, the Sheriff's deputies seized a Hyperion Arms and Ammo Model HCA-15 Multi, Semi-automatic AR Style Rifle, Caliber 5.56 NATO, serial number HA 100034 which appears to have been manufactured or altered in Danville, NY, as well as on partial box of Federal 5.56 x 45 mm, 55 grain FMJ ball ammunition containing 380 live rounds. The rifle was found in a gun rack in the residence living room. The ammunition was seized from the basement of the residence. Other items seized are included in Exhibit 2, Cortland County Sheriff's Office Evidence Work Sheet. An interview of the defendant's father, Alan T. Schack revealed that he purchased the rifle and ammunition on March 1, 2018.

5. During the execution of the search warrant it was learned that the residents included Alan T. Schack, the father of Jensen Schack, Elizabeth Melville, the partner of the Alan T. Schack and two minor children.

6. During the execution of the Cortland County Court Search Warrant, Deputies located a room used by Jensen Schack as his bedroom on the first floor adjacent to the living room. A search of this bedroom located several items of drug paraphernalia including pipes that could be used for smoking or ingesting controlled substances, rolling papers that could be used for smoking or ingesting controlled substances, and papers which appear to contain the residue of marijuana or some other organic substance which could be a controlled substance. A photograph of some of these items are attached hereto as exhibit 3. These items were not seized as they were not listed in the Cortland County Court search warrant. At the conclusion of the execution of the Cortland County Court search warrant, the drug paraphernalia items were left where they were found. A deputy Sheriff from Chenango County Sheriff's Office is currently (March 5, 2018) at the residence to ensure that these items are not moved or destroyed pending the anticipated issuance of the requested federal search warrant.

7. I have consulted with U.S. Bureau of Alcohol, Tobacco, Firearms and Explosives (ATF) Special Agent Louis J. Safiotti is, who is an expert in the interstate nexus of firearms and ammunition, who has advised me that the ammunition seized during the execution of the Cortland County Court search warrant, consisting of partial box of Federal 5.56 x 45 mm, 55 grain FMJ ball ammunition containing 380 live rounds was not manufactured in New York State and therefore affected interstate commerce.

8. Following the execution of the Cortland County Court Search warrant, Jensen Schack was arrested and charged with the New York State felony offense of Making a Terroristic Threat, in violation of New York State Penal Law Section 490.20. He was taken at the Cortland County Sheriff's Department, where he was advised of his Miranda rights, which he waived knowingly and voluntarily. During this interview, which was recorded in video and audio, Jensen Schack admitted that he had posted the images and writings issued via Snapchat. He also admitted that he had fired the Hyperion Arms and Ammo Model HCA-15 Multi, Semi-automatic AR Style Rifle, Caliber 5.56 NATO, serial number HA 100034 at least once. During the course of the interview, he claimed that the posts were the result of his dark sense of humor and were a joke. He was arraigned at 12 noon on Saturday March 3, 2018 in Cortland City Court. Today he again appeared in Cortland City Court and was assigned defense counsel. Upon the motion of Cortland County District Attorney, and with the consent of defense counsel, he is currently the subject of a mental competency exam pursuant to New York Criminal Procedure Law Section 730 examination for fitness to proceed. His bail has been set at $100,000.00 cash or bond and his next court appearance is scheduled for Friday March 9, 2018.

9. I request that the court issue the requested federal search warrant so that items of evidence, set forth in attachment B, and were not seized during the execution of the Cortland County Search warrant may be seized for possible use in the prosecution of Jensen Schack for possible violations of federal law. His posts via Snapchat could constitute a possible violation of 18 USC Section 875(c), Threats via Interstate Communications. The drugs paraphernalia referenced herein could constitute evidence that could be establish an element of a drug user in possession of ammunition in violation of 18 USC Section 922(g)(3).

10. Based upon the foregoing, I request that the Court issue the requested search warrant so that the items of evidence set forth in Attachment B may be recovered and preserved.
